—Don't forget flowers for your girl friend. High school commencement June 7. C. L. Brunson & Co., 423 Broadway.

People and Pleasant Events

Parties sending in accounts of social entertainments will please sign them, as The Sun will not publish communications sent in that are not signed.

Washington Tribune to Miss Webb. The Washington correspondent of the Courier-Journal says:

"Most interesting final exercises took place at Florence School, with three uncommonly attractive Kentucky girls taking active part, Miss Frances Wallace and Lillian Gregory, of Paducah, and Susie Bronston, of Lexington, Miss Anna Webb, the principal, and chief promoter of the popular institution, has discontinued her connection with Florence School, and returned to her home in Paducah, to devote herself to the care of her parents. She is a beautiful and gracious woman, whose departure will be sincerely felt in Washington.

"At Fairmount Seminary, where Miss Frances Jeter of Owensboro, is one of the most popular students, the final exercises covered several days. At Class day celebration Mrs. Fairbanks, wife of Vice President Fairbanks, was guest of honor."

Former Paducahans in Washington. A delightful river trip was made the other day by a gay company of sixteen down the Potomac to Quantico, Va., on the large private yacht of the host, Mr. du Pont, of Wilmington, Del. Sumptuous meals served en voyage and all the other comforts of home and many extra. Contributing to the pleasure of the party were Senator and Mrs. Blackburn, Mrs. W. P. Conway, Capt. and Mrs. W. Fitzhugh Dandridge, of Frankfort; Delegate Mark Smith, of Arizona, originally from Cynthia and Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Van Sengen, formerly of Paducah; Mr. Tom Wallace, of Louisville; Mr. Louis Brownlow, of Kentucky and Tennessee.—Washington Letter—Courier-Journal.

Married in Rhode Island. The Woonsocket (R. I.) Evening Call of May 31, says:

"P. Lee Bridges and Mary C. Wright, both of this city, were united in marriage yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by J. O. Fallon, assistant city registrar of Boston, at his residence, 2767 Washington street, Roxbury. The couple were unattended. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bridges returned to Mr. Bridges' home on South Main street. He is a linotype operator for the Evening Call."

Mr. Bridges was a linotype operator for The Sun and is pleasantly remembered by many friends made during his residence here, who will be interested in the above announcement.

Enjoyable Birthday Party. Little Miss Alene McMahan delightfully entertained a few of her friends at her home on North Sixth street last Saturday afternoon in honor of her seventh birthday.

Among those present were: Misses Mary Elizabeth Smith, Alma Hutchen Mabel Barron, Beulah Morrison, Lena Woods, Lillian McMahan, Laura Barron, Maude Bush, Maude Broyles and Alene McMahan, Masters Dean Farr, Claude Broyles, Edward Barron, Ira Hotchen and Philip McMahan.

Miss Anna Bird Stewart, of Cincinnati, will be the guest of Miss Ella Wilhelm of North Fifth street, during commencement week. Miss Stewart was a member of the High School faculty last year and one of the most popular teachers in the Paducah schools. She has spent the winter in New York city.

Miss Bettie Smith, who has been for the past few years living in Los Angeles, Cal., has returned home. While Miss Smith intended coming in June, her return was hastened by the news of her mother's accident. Mrs. Smith fell last week at her home.

at Jefferson and Ninth streets and broke her hip.

Miss Jennie Anderson and Miss Josephine Hunt, of Memphis, Tenn., will arrive this week to attend the Byrd-Alexander wedding. They will be the guests of Mrs. Paul E. Stutz, of 529 Jefferson street, and Miss Jessie Byrd, of 1043 Trimble street.

Judge Jefferson Davis Clifton, of Smithland, is in the city today.

Mrs. J. L. Burdell, of 1333 South Third street, who is now in Riverside hospital after having undergone an operation recently, is convalescing rapidly and it is hoped, that if she continues to improve as at present, she may be able to go to her home again in a week or so.

Miss Mildred Soule has returned from an eight weeks' visit in Memphis.

Attorney William Marble, of the firm of Hendrick, Miller and Marble, went to Princeton this morning to attend the first day of Caldwell circuit court.

Mr. William Eades the coal dealer, went to Greenville this morning on business.

McCracken Circuit Court.

April (Civil) term, 33rd day, May 30, 1906.

George C. Wallace and W. E. Cave, executors of B. H. Wisdom, deceased, plaintiffs, vs. equity, Henry Wisdom and others, defendants.

Upon motion of the plaintiffs herein, it is ordered that this cause be referred to the Master Commissioner of this Court, Cecil Reed, to hear proof of claims, and if any, against the estate of B. H. Wisdom, deceased, to make a settlement with the Executors, George C. Wallace and W. E. Cave, and to settle the accounts of the Executors, and to hear proof as to the claims of the Executors, or either of them, for an allowance for extra services herein, and also as to the usual allowance made to Executors, and said Master Commissioner will make report of all his acts on or before the third day of the next September term of this Court. And it is ordered that this order be published in the Paducah Daily Sun as required by law.

A copy attested:

H. C. Wilson.

Mr. H. C. Wilson, 51 years old, a well-known union carpenter, died at his home, 501 South Eighth street, Sunday night at 9:30 o'clock of complications after an illness of four days. He was taken ill while visiting in Benton but brought to Paducah immediately after the attack. The deceased was born in Benton, Ky., but moved to Paducah about five years ago. He was a member of the Odd Fellows lodge for many years and a hard worker in the trades unions. He is survived by a wife, sister, Mrs. Frank Johnson, of Sharpe, Marshall county, Ky., and the following children, all of Paducah: Misses Ollie, Geraldine, Cora and Mattie and Harry, Ben and Trent Wilson. This afternoon at 1 o'clock a short home service was held, the Rev. Calvin Thompson, of the First Baptist church, officiating, and the body was taken to Benton for burial.

TIPS.

DO YOU EVER stop to think what a market place these columns are? It is remarkable the number of ways in which The Sun's want ad columns are used. If you have anything at all for sale, you will most probably find a purchaser by putting in a little want ad. Some one may be looking for just what you want. Try it.
